Amusements.

Gaevan's Theatre.—Another interchange of Bill.—The Florence—original, artistic, charming, and versatile, with their light and amusing pieces, so delightful and interesting, have attracted fashionable audiences, whose numbers crowd the popular theatre in every part, night by night. We have, thus far this season, only seen Mr. Gaevan's some of his scenes, which will be acted here Saturday evening. This evening he will appear in the eccentric Burlesque part of the Toadies, in the comic drama of that name. Although Mr. Florence does not assume the character to be specifically greater than the Toadies, he has spoken in his favor as the imitator of the Toadies, by the New York and London press, that all regular theatre-goers, and hundreds who do not constantly attend places of amusement, have early and decided preference for him. He will be here to-night. The performances this evening will conclude with a delightful Protean comedy, entitled "Working the Oracle," which employs new scenery by Maevet. Mr. Florence in foil and Mrs. Fine in a chaste white. See also the orchestra will perform, for the third time, "A Day with the Irish Brigade."

Ford's New Theatre.—Fanchon, the Cricket, was produced at this Theatre last evening in a splendid style, and made a decided impression upon the elegantly packed audience, as being the most brilliant and interesting piece of the season, up to the present time.

And whereas it is the late chief of police in said District, the late Mayor of the city of Washington, the twelve Jurymen who convicted the prisoner, and many other highly respectable citizens, testify to the truth of the foregoing statement, and that the evidence presented to the court in the discussion of what he was charged to be his official duty:

And whereas it appears that said Richard Evans was a policeman at the time of said homicide, and the evidence resulted from his conduct in the discharge of what he was charged to be his official duty:

And whereas it is credibly shown that the said Richard Evans bore an unblemished character for mildness and good morals prior to said homicide:

And whereas the late chief of police in said District, the late Mayor of the city of Washington, the twelve Jurymen who convicted the prisoner, and many other highly respectable citizens, testify to the truth of the foregoing statement, and that the evidence presented to the court in the discussion of what he was charged to be his official duty:

And whereas it appears that said Richard Evans was a policeman at the time of said homicide, and the evidence resulted from his conduct in the discharge of what he was charged to be his official duty:

Now, therefore, be it known that I, ABRAHAM LINCOLN, President of the United States of America, in consideration of the premises, do hereby grant, and I do hereby grant and award unto him, said Richard Evans, a full and unconditional pardon.

In testimony whereof I have hereunto signed my name, and caused the seal of the United States to be affixed:

ABRAHAM LINCOLN.

By the President:

WILLIAM H. SEWARD, Secretary of State.

Interesting Church Services.

The ceremony of recognition of the new Baptist church in this city will take place in this city to day and this evening. The church has been named the Calvary Baptist church, and a council of pastors and delegates from the other Baptist churches in this city, will be present at the service.

At half past seven o'clock this evening the public exercises will be held at Rev. Dr. Gurley's church, 10th and Tenth Streets, and at half past eight o'clock, that editor, having been generously tendered for that purpose. The sermon for the occasion will be preached by the Rev. Mr. Jeffrey, of Philadelphia. This meeting will be highly interesting to the religious portion of the community, and we hope that the proprietors will give it again for this evening.

Circus and Equestrian School.—Gardner & Hollings' Circus, which has been for a long period perfecting organization in New York, will shortly appear in this city, before commencing a tour on the European continent. Among the numerous and most fascinating attractions to be offered to us, who come with acknowledged French and English reputations.

Such an amusement as that offered has long been desired, and we are glad that our citizens have engaged the services of Messrs. Gardner & Hollings, to appear in the capital before departing from the country.

Acquitted.

John Williams and Henry Wallace, two colored boys, who were committed to jail by Justice Dutton, will be freed now, but not allowed to pass into an all-white school, or to remain in their residence, and severely assaulted a woman for disobeying his "orders." He was arrested by Officer McDevitt, of the Third Ward, before Justice Thompson. Here the Negroes are to be tried, and all about law and equity, made such a demonstration of its forceful powers in the way of cursing, so that the Justice committed him for contempt.

Stealing a Coat.

Henry Hayward was arrested by Officer Kemble, charged with stealing a coat from Thomas. A. P. Farnsworth, in the First Ward, and stealing from the sum of $50, to be paid out for a further examination yesterday. They were defended by Edward O. Morgan and William A. Wharton, Esq. After the trial, the defense was dismissed from all charges against them. They were released.

Charles Haggard was arrested by Officer Morgan, of the Fourth Ward, on Monday afternoon, on the charge of beating his wife. He was taken before Justice Walter and held to answer.

Counterfeit Money.

John B. Bush and Edward Tandy, soldiers, were arrested on Monday by Officer Morgan and Bush, on the charge of passing counterfeit money. They were held for trial.

Assaults.

John Cullen was arrested on Monday, by Officer Williams, of the Fourth ward, for assault and battery. He was taken before Justice Walter and fined $1.
